

Faith & Food

Big Green Week – June 16-21
Debates, discussions & devotion

Sunday
16th 5-7pm

Opening the Green Heart: Hope led, not fear driven

How is hope renewed and ancient wisdom revived in the current crises? Keynote speaker Bishop David Atkinson. 5-7pm, Saint Stephen's Café, City Centre, BSI IEQ

Naming and Knowing: Walking and befriending the Earth

With Mary Colwell, film maker, writer, broadcaster. A walk from College Green to Brandon Hill to examine flora & fauna, wells & waters. College Green, BSI 5TR

Monday
17th 11-12.30

Tuesday
18th 11-12.30

Sharing Eden: Three world faiths share a garden story

Three faith authors – David Shreeve, Rabbi Natan Levy, Harfiyah Abdel Haleem – explore our common heritage. Saint Stephen's, City Centre, BSI IEQ

Feeding the 10 Billion: Without destroying the planet

As the world's population grows and resources diminish, how do we feed hungry mouths without trashing the planet? Bristol Cathedral, College Green, BSI 5TJ

Wed 19th
11-12.30pm

Thurs 20th
11-12.30pm

Song of the Earth: St Francis, Happiness, Community

Brother Samuel on the Franciscan Community's vision at Hilfield Friary, Dorset. With Bristol's Happy City initiative. Bristol Cathedral, College Green, BSI 5TJ

A Truth Mandala: Circle of devotion & hope for creation

With Joanna Macy, a chance to work in a facilitated group to discover new energy and freedom for action. Saint Stephen's Café, City Centre, BSI IEQ Booking essential

Thurs 20th
6-8pm

Friday 21st
2pm

Food Banks and Food Sovereignty

Food banks are clearly meeting a need for people in crisis but what is their long term social impact? Participative workshop with food practitioners across the city. Hamilton House, Stokes Croft, BSI 3QY

Full details and to book: www.biggreenweek.com