

Many Heavens ONE EARTH

Faiths, the Environment and Copenhagen

Friends House, London opposite Euston Station
4 November 2009, 7.00pm-9.00pm

Join with people of all faiths to celebrate the commitment of faith communities to care for the environment.

The evening will feature presentations from leading United Nations, scientific and religious figures as well as song and dance.

Olav Kjørven
UN Assistant
Secretary-General

Sheikh Ali Gomaa
Grand Mufti of Egypt

Nigel Savage
founder of Jewish green charity Hazon

Registration is free, but essential. Doors open at 6.00pm.

Register or find out more at www.quaker.org.uk/manyheavens or drop into the new Quaker Centre at 173 Euston Road, London NW1 2BJ – directly opposite Euston Station.

Climate change:
we can change!

Supported by the Methodist International Centre